

Partnering with your Senior Living Community through Storytime

presented by Jozefa Rogocki & Kelsie Rodriguez

Who We Are

Outreach Connections

- Making contact
- Participating in community events
- Developing relationships

Are we on the same page?
Are we even in the same book?

Sitting
is good!

Jumping
is fun!

How did we get to the Magic?

- Dedicated and passionate partners
- Dialogue
- Supportive management

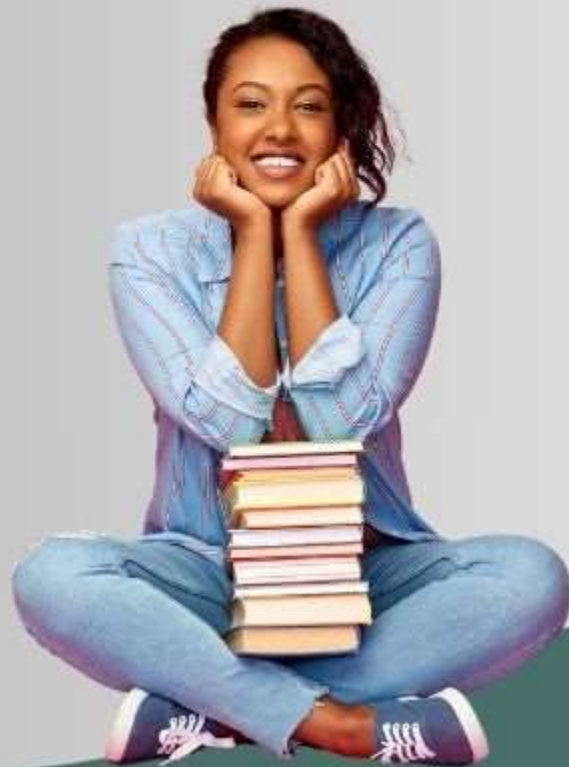

Jacque Dillinger
Life Enrichment Director

The Program

Getting Down to Business

1. Logistics

- Accessibility
- Timing
- Participation
- Numbers
- Management

2. Content

- Storytime expectations
- Book Choices
- Activities & songs
- Librarian participation

The Program

Getting Down to Business

1. Logistics

Accessibility

Timing

Participation

Numbers

Management

2 x 2

Using 2 rooms we had 2 readers in each area

The Program

Getting Down to Business

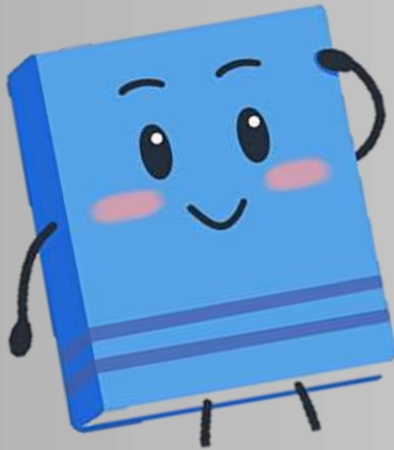

2. Content

Storytime Expectations

Librarian Participation

Activities and Songs

Book Choices

Storytime Format

- Arrivals
- Story Time
 - Welcome Song
 - First Reader
 - Song or Rhyme
 - Second Reader
 - Song or Rhyme
- Unstructured activity playtime
- Music & Movement
- Goodbye Song

Activity Examples

- Playdoh with cookie cutters
- Dollhouse with dolls and furniture
- Puppet Theatre and puppets
- Magna tiles and blocks
- Puzzles
- Drawing with markers and Kwik Stix
- Play food with kitchen utensils & tea set

Playtime Activities

Playtime Activities

Scarves and Bells

Outreach Developments

- Invitation to partner on community storytime at the Woodlands Center

